

Join the Berlitz Consultant Network

Berlitz Consulting has been aiding global companies with the internationalization of their employees for over a decade. We are an industry leader in the field of intercultural training and consulting, serving clients globally. Our intercultural training is available in over 76 countries and provided by more than 400 certified consultants.

By joining the Berlitz Consulting network you will not only have opportunities for consulting work, but also the possibility to participate in our personal development programs and in local gatherings with other consultants of your caliber.

Currently we are searching for SENIOR CONSULTANTS to partner with us. If you have the following profile, please contact us to learn about the opportunities that are possible for you.

SENIOR CONSULTANT profile:

- Business experience in one or more of the following countries: Brazil, Russia, China, India, USA or Middle East
- Professional experience consulting and coaching
- Professional experience in training, human resources development, and intercultural environments
- Significant international experience on a personal as well as professional level
- Educational background in social sciences with an emphasis on intercultural management
- Fluency at the executive level in at least two languages

Send your CV and contact information